IF I HAD ANOTHER CHANCE

WHAT ONE MAN WOULD DO IF HE COULD TRY LIFE OVER AGAIN.

Interesting Address Delivered Judge D. P. Baldwin, Last Week, to Students of Purdue.

The wheels of time never go backward. Once gray, always gray, unless white. Any attempt to evade this sign of approaching dissolution only makes us ridiculous. While it is mournfully true that 'the tender grace of a day that is dead will never come back again" still, the antidote is that God is unspeakably kind in not requiring us to live these tedious, unsatisfactory lives of ours a second time-"one chance and no and as he has failed to make the most of it, he feels that he owes a duty to the young whose opportunity is all before
